Why get hung!
God, so it's all come to this. I supported the wrong music and now I must die. I'm not afraid.
I see they've brought all the rock critics and fans to witness my humiliation. I'll show them. I'm determined to die a man!
Yes, I'll go out strong. For years I will be remembered as a martyr, a hero! My name will be spoken with awe, with-

There They are! On the Floor!

we better work fast. We must keep the show on the air!

How else will we make a profit?

shutup & pump!

work for Bethtel?

We did it! and just in time, too!

This calls for a snort!

Dammit, we'll never get outta here suture self!

Why CHRIST DIED

Brezhnev's body lies in state Friday at the House of Unions.

SUICIDE

Why are so many, worldwide, choosing suicide as the solution to life's problems?

Who Are the Victims?

The most pitiful of all statistics is the awesome toll exacted among our most intelligent, capable and valuable asset—the youth of the world. Self-destruction is the final solution to life's hopelessness for an increasing number of young people. In the United States, for example, death by suicide among young people has tripled in recent years. It is the THIRD LEADING CAUSE of death for young people of the United States following accidents and homicide. Recently, preliminary studies indicate it has now risen to the second leading cause of death.

Why? What are the reasons these young people give up on life before they have lived it?

The answer reads like a litany written to the 20th century: too much money, too much alcohol, too many possessions, too many drugs, not enough love and concern by parents. Add boredom, depressions, stress, fear, frustration, hopelessness, low self-esteem and guilt—which all too often are connected to a recent family breakup.

Even more heartbreaking is the realization that for every success-
